

Texas Motor Speedway and the IRL Championship Weekend

The Indy Racing League Championship weekend was an exciting and exhilarating weekend for the TTS TEAM, Guests, and Sponsors.

On Thursday evening, a select group of visitors were treated to the sounds of the infield stage as rock bands played. Arrivals and welcome ceremonies grew while setup and load in continued. The TTS crew worked swiftly to get the booth spaces ready for the crowds to enjoy. TTS participated in the Racing Road Show booth sponsored by Disney and the WBAP booth just adjacent to the IRL experience booth and stage. Driving 101 participated and prepared for the drawing of a free ride and drive experience to be held on October 17th. The arrival of the TEAMS is always an exciting time at the Speedway!

The weekend continued with an open house on Friday evening at the TEAM condo on the eighth floor in turn # 2. Guests were treated to Pizza, the qualifying rounds, and practices for the Pro-Infiniti, NASCAR Craftsman Truck and IRL races.

On Saturday, guests arrived to a celebration of Italian foods catered by Brooklyn's Best. Beyond the awesome cuisine, the guests were treated to the NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series race and the Indy Racing League Pro-Infiniti Series race. Both races were very exciting, packed with high speed action.

Tessie Painter, TTS Motorsport marketing agent, and Lea Abbott worked to prepare for a flawless entertainment extravaganza on Sunday. It was the IRL Championship, and with five teams in the hunt for the Championship, it was an electrifying atmosphere. TTS Sponsors and guests were escorted on a tour of the Hot Pits just prior to the race. Blake Mallory and the Mallory racing TEAM joined the TTS TEAM in the condo for the race. Congratulations to Blake for his qualifying run in the NASCAR Craftsman Truck Series race. Italian delicacies were catered by Brooklyn's Best located in Arlington, Texas. Fun, business, and relationships intersected in an absolutely positive environment.

The TTS TEAM hosted over 200 guests during the three days of events. TTS would like to thank each and every guest for joining them this weekend. TTS would like to express a special thank you to each of the volunteers, and sponsors of the event.
